

Dear Prospective Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in Bay Aging’s service-enriched rental housing communities for older adults. These independent living apartments feature universal design elements that make aging in place safe, affordable, and enjoyable. Tenants have convenient access to Bay Aging’s various support services, facilitated by caring and professional management.

Resident eligibility for U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Section 202 Supportive Housing for the Elderly is restricted to households with at least one-member aged 62 or older. Yearly income may not exceed the HUD Income Limits for the county where the apartment community is located. Rent for these one-bedroom apartments includes water, sewer, and an allowance for electricity. The amount of monthly rent paid will be 30% of adjusted gross income, including a small percentage of assets, less deductions for qualified medical expenses. This applies to the ten (10) apartment communities listed below.

HUD 50% Area Median Income Maximum Limits
No Minimum Income Limits

Winters Point	$38,650	$44,150	King William

Daffodil Gardens II, located in Gloucester County, is funded primarily by Low-Income Housing Tax Credits. This property features both one- and two-bedroom apartments for households with at least one household member aged 55 or older. Rent ranges from $460 to $900 per month. Tenants are responsible for water, sewer, and electricity. A minimum income limit has been set requiring that households’ annual income is double the rent amount to ensure payment ability. A maximum income limit has been established as listed below.
